

Grace Baptist Mission helps churches support and care for their missionaries worldwide. They have organised various holidays over the years to help promote missionary awareness and involvement.

Pioneer Camp has been providing young people with a holiday under canvas in a Christian environment for over 50 years and once again are joining forces with GBM to run this senior camp for those aged 17+.

(This is in addition to the two other camps that Pioneer Camp are organising for 11-17 & 9-14 year olds which are being held at Athelington in Suffolk, earlier in August. For more details of these 2 camps contact Mrs G. Hollman, 20 Croftside, Vigo Village, Meopham, Kent, DA13 0SH Tel/Fax: 01732 822181 email: Hollman@Supanet.com or visit www.pioneercamp.org.uk

Why this holiday?

- to encourage and challenge young people in their Christian lives
- to think seriously about mission
- to provide stimulating friendship and fellowship whilst having a good holiday

Speaker: Ray Evans (Bedford)

Leaders: John McDonald & Andrew Sadler (GBM)
David & Esther Hollands (Pioneer Camp)

(small print) Rules (small print)

You must be on the campsite and quiet between 11pm & 7am.
No alcohol or smoking on campsite.
You must respect (i.e keep out of) tents used by the opposite sex.
Areas of the farm not in use by camp are out of bounds.
You are expected to attend the morning & evening meetings.
You need a note from your Mum if you don't like Rice Pudding

What's it all about ?

We have every modern convenience! Hot showers, hair dryer, microwave, washing machine, tumble drier, & hot running water.

There is a fully carpeted dining room, armchairs in the lounge, an excellent bookstall & a fully stocked tuck shop at amazing prices. Snooker, table tennis, unicycle, trampoline, bouncy castle, space hoppers, giant Jenga... etc. etc.

In fact, the only thing that resembles real camping is that you sleep in a tent. Food is of the highest quality - ask anybody who's been before.

Ray Evans will do a series of talks in the morning, then there are optional games, (football, table tennis, cricket, rounders, volleyball etc.) or trips out by car convoy (e.g. beach, bowling, laser quest, McDonalds etc.).

In the evening we have missionaries & other world famous speakers dealing with a variety of relevant topics followed by lots of discussion over supper.

Your money back if you don't have a good time, so ... please book early!

Phil Arthur, John Blanchard & John Peet

if so, who?
- Maybe buy a tent from us? Yes/No
(we can supply new tents at £20-£40)
- Shall we provide the tent? Yes/No
(we have a some large frame or dome tents for general use)

Please give any further information here, including any special needs/diets, or if you're only coming for part of the holiday

Helpers

There is a £40 option for anyone who comes as a helper. All this means is that you would have a regular duty at most meals, e.g. washing/wiping up. You would also be expected to be generally helpful. You would not miss out on any of the activities or be discriminated against in any other way. You would have no power or authority over anybody else, so megalomaniacs & shirkers need not apply! Tick the box if you would like to come as a helper. (otherwise leave blank)
